

Week - 02 - Arithmetic, Strings, Lists\Tutorial_week_2.py

```
1
2 # import random
3 # # for i in range(0, 5, 1):
4 # for i in range(5):
5 #     print(f'points for person {i+1} are {random.randint(55, 93)}')
6
7 # s1_points = random.randint(50, 100)
8 # s2_points = random.randint(50, 100)
9 # s3_points = random.randint(50, 100)
10 # s4_points = random.randint(50, 100)
11 # s5_points = random.randint(50, 100)
12
13 # students_points = []
14
15 # for i in range(100_000):
16 #     students_points.append(random.randint(50, 100))
17
18 # for i in range(100_000):
19 #     print(students_points[i])
20
21 # print(s1_points, s2_points, s3_points, s4_points, s5_points)
22
23
24
25 # friends_names = ["Anna", "Elsa"]
26 friends_names = []
27 number_of_friends = int(input("How many friends do you have: "))
28
29 for i in range(number_of_friends):
30     name = input(f'enter name of friend {i+1} : ')
31     friends_names.append(name)
32
33 for i in range(number_of_friends):
34     print(friends_names[i])
35
36 print(friends_names[3:])
37 print(friends_names[-1])
38 print(friends_names[2:4])
```